Painting Competition under Gandhi Jayanti Celebrations 20th September 2025

As part of the Gandhi Jayanti Celebrations, the College NSS Units organised a Painting Competition on the theme Dandi March and Quit India Movement on 20th September 2025. The competition aimed to inspire students to creatively express the ideals of freedom and sacrifice associated with Mahatma Gandhi's struggle for independence.

The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students across semesters. After careful evaluation, Sumaya Bashir of the Third Semester was declared the First Prize Winner for her outstanding artwork.

The jury for the competition comprised Prof. Mohammad Salim, Prof. Gowhar Muslim, Dr. Zahid Hussain, and Dr. G. M. Khan, who also served as the rapporteur. The programme was efficiently managed by Prof. Irfan Ahmad, Dr. Wasia Hamid, Prof. Sadaf and Dr. Idrees Ahmad, ensuring smooth coordination and active student engagement.

The competition not only highlighted students' artistic talents but also reinforced their understanding of the historic movements that shaped India's freedom struggle.
